

Samantha Mumba, Read My Mind

(Read my mind)

Did you catch that look that was meant for you?
Did you know where my smile was leading to?
Did you hear that sigh
You know what I want you to do.

Not a single word I need to hear
Cuz your body's talking loud and clear.
Baby, you can bring it on through.
You know we're gonna get it together.
I guess it's just a question of time.

(Chorus)
You should read my mind
Give my body some attention
Oh boy(Oh boy)
You should read my mind
It's the perfect situation
Here tonight.

Did you feel that touch, warm embrace?
Tender kiss that never took place?
Feels so good, it's almost real to me.
Now I don't know where it's coming from,
I just know where we belong
Ohh, you're doing something to me.
You know we don't need no explanation.
It's no surprise or mystery.

(Chorus)
You should read my mind
Give my body some attention
Oh boy(Oh boy)
You should read my mind
It's the perfect situation
Here tonight.

Are you seeing something that like you like?
Do you really want my love tonight?
(All my love tonight, yeah)
Are you gonna give me all your time?
And can you guess what's on my mind?

(You should read my mind 6x)

(Chorus 2x)

(You should read my mind 4x)
