

Sarah Brightman, Let It Rain

It's empty
Haunting
Love is the law
Its temple is empty
From grace we fall
It feels like on the outside looking in
We always wonder how it could have been

CHORUS:

Let it rain
Let it rain
Why can't we find love again
Let it rain
Let it rain
Still I drown in tears of pain
Over again
Let it rain

Chances, hunger
Insatiable
Life is changing Unpredictable
Hear me calling
Where are you now
Will we meet
Anyway
Anyhow

CHORUS

Where do we end
Where do we begin
Are we lost
or must we lose to win
We depend on where we stand
Are we free to choose the lives we live

Where do we end
Where do we begin
Are we lost
or must we lose to win
Are we free to choose the lives we live
