

Sarsa Markiewicz, Dumb Love

Sometimes all, all I could do is to prove that I mean something
Sometimes all, all I want to do is to screw everything that I've got inside me
And still stand like a fool, waiting for you to come and take me home
Still stand like a fool, waiting for you to come and take me
I give you dumb love
I give you dumb love
De deva-deva devastation for my heart
This is deva-deva devastation
I give you dumb love!

Sometimes all, all I could do is to prove
Sometimes all, all I want to do is to screw everything that I've got inside me!
Still stand like a fool, waiting for you
Yeah, yeah still stand like a fool, waiting for you to come and take me
Deva-deva devastation for my heart
This is deva-deva devastation
I give you dumb love
deva-deva devastation for my heart
This is deva-deva devastation
I give you dumb love

I give you dumb love
Deva-deva devastation
Deva-deva devastation for my heart
I give you dumb love

I give you dumb love
Deva-deva devastation
Deva-deva devastation for my heart
I give you dumb love
