

Scarling., Baby Dracula

Stop your nonsense my dear
I know you need attention, so slash an artery...
You are so transparent, can't see your own reflection... you look the same to me.

now let go...

This baby popped my heart
He fell to pieces, he turned cold
He never did what was told...
This baby sucked me dry
He cried some milk, he turned to stone
he took his ball and he went home...

baby dracula
baby dracula
baby dracula

Your romantic notion Won't hide your pale complexion or vulnerability...
And it hurts to know you Wont be the one exception...
Here's a philosophy
Just let go...

This baby popped my heart
He fell to pieces, he turned cold
He never did what was told...
This baby sucked me dry
he took his ball and he went home...

baby dracula
baby dracula
baby dracula
baby dracula

You lost your relevance Mr. black I gave you everything give it back You wont win & i'll tell you why you've betrayed a person that bleeds but won't die

Red is your reason and alibi Sucked off everyone say good-bye
When your narrow coffin's rotting from the inside
Then you know, to let go, think it's time you tried.
