

Selena Gomez, Crowded Room (feat. 6lack)

baby, it's just me and you
just us two
even in a crowded room

it started polite, out on thin ice till you came over to break it I throw you a line and you were mine yeah I was afraid you made it safe I guess that is our combination said you feel lost well so do I

so won't you call me in the morning?
I think that you should call me in the morning?
if you feel the same, cause

just us two

just us two

engulfed in the flames engulfed in the shame betrayed by your imagination on over my head but that's alright

if you feel the same

just us two

just us two
