

Selena Gomez, She

she was too young to be the Hollywood type too pure to understand the lows and the highs she didn't know if she was gonna survive it all got so much, better whit time all of the evil eyes

tequila before sunrise
I'd tell her to watch her back that she's worth more than that cause

she was a girl whit good intentions yeah she made some bad decisions and she learned a couple lessons wish I could tell her
she was a girl whit good intentions
yeah she made some bad decisions
and she learned a couple lessons

she didn't know all of the hurt she could take her world was crumbling and so was her faith wish I could talk to her cause what I would say oh baby you're enough to get out of this place all of the flashing light

tequila before sunrise

yeah she made some bad decisions
and she learned a couple lessons
wish I could tell her
she was a girl whit good intentions
yeah she made some bad decisions
and she learned a couple lessons

I know you'll get the chance to find who you are I know you'll have a choice before it gets too dark
I know you'll have a choice

yeah she made some bad decisions
and she learned a couple lessons
wish I could tell her
didn't need the second guessing didn't need to ever question
