

Sergio Mendes, Funny You Should Say That

I got up early this morning
I guess I just couldn't sleep
All my arrangements are made
I've got appointments to keep

But tables and chairs are covered
I took our name off the door
That's what you told me to do
But you can't carry it through anymore

Funny you should say that, baby
Tell me, did you read my mind
Funny you should say that, baby
That's how I felt all the time

I'd like to make a confession
I haven't always been fair, no
Sometimes I think of myself
Before I notice you there

Well, I could wait for a taxi
Tell him I didn't call
That's what you want me to do
If I can stay here with you after all

Funny you should say that, baby
Tell me, did you read my mind
Funny you should say that, baby
That's how I felt all the time
