

Sergio Mendes, Here Where I Belong

Here where I belong
I wanna stay
Here where there's love
I'll make my way
And never wander

Here where I found you
All that I need
Is in your eyes
It's guaranteed
For a lifetime

Here with you
All my dreams are real
Everything I feel
I'm feeling for the first time
No more shattered expectations
No broken invitations chasing me

Used to think that love
Was only bittersweet
Used to think that love
Could never be complete
That was until I came
Here where I belong
