

Sergio Mendes, Puzzle Of Hearts

Believe me, I'll never know how
In this life I ever found you
I don't know why you put up with me
When I go on hurting you so
Why you stay heaven knows

It's true that I would be lost
Without your tender arms to anchor me
When all my schemes have abandoned me
Wandering off empty and cold
Until you have taken hold

Like a puzzle of hearts
Your love makes me whole
Each of us missing
Part of the other's soul
As long as I live
No less will I give

Like a puzzle of hearts
Scattered far and wide
We're on a journey
Starting from different sides
And each day I wake
With each step I take
I see your face
And fall into place

Assim que o dia amanheceu
L no mar-alto da paixão
Dava pra ver o tempo ruir
Cadê você? que solidão
Esquecera de mim

It's true that I would be lost
Without your tender arms to anchor me
When all my schemes have abandoned me
Wandering off empty and cold
Until you have taken hold

Like a puzzle of hearts
Your love makes me whole
You are the missing part
Of my lonely soul
As long as I live
No less will I give
