

Seven And The Sun, Black And Blue

Music & Lyrics by We3Kings (Seven, Walter Brandt, Bill Brandt)

Now I can't stop the world I'm no pretender
Everything feels cold like a gray December
Underneath the sun we are nothing but the same
We both try to wear a smile
We both try to mask the pain

CHORUS

I'm black & I'm blue
I'm broken in two
& nobody knows it like you do
I'm falling apart
There's a whole in my heart
& nobody knows it like you do

Everything's gone wrong
And I can't change her
She said it's all my fault
Now and I can't blame her
Watch the wheel of fate
Where's the arrow going to fall?
Is it something I can change
Or is the writing on the wall?

BRIDGE

So the truth it comes to torture me
Will our future be our history
Is there something I can do to ease the pain
Now my weakness has confronted me
And your silence comes to punish me
Will you ever find a place for me again
