

Seven Mary Three, She Wants Results

I'm gonna make my break
Can a whole life be rearranged?
The only chance I have
To keep her safe
Lay me down tonight
With your broken heart
Baby wants results
Or a new start
Am I half the man
That I said I was?
If I promised that
Why didn't I show up?
Lay me down tonight
With your broken heart
Baby wants results
Or a new start
Can I swim across
This faded atmosphere?
I'd say anything
Just to keep you here
Lay me down tonight
With your broken heart
Baby wants results
She said she wants results
Baby wants results
Or a new start
