Seven Mary Three, This Evening's Great Excuse

Time will pack a bag on you, my love organize, re-organize your Luck Pretty face, a pretty smile, a pretty shame you can't defile The message you have made for them to see

And it will be And it will be HYPOCRISY

This evening's great excuse is this: To make your peace. And make a list of everything that's trivial and wide

Handshake man, how could you be? A sweeter, softer, gentler king Spread out for every queen to see

And it will be And it will be HYPOCRISY
