

Shakespear's Sistars, Hallo (Turn The Radio On)

Woke up this morning and the streets were full of cars
All bright and shiny like they'd just arrived from Mars
And as I stumbled through last nights drunken debris
The paperboy screamed out the headlines in the street
Another war and now the pound is looking weak
And tell me have you read about the latest freak?
We're bingo numbers and our names are obsolete
Why do I feel bitter when I should be feeling sweet

Hello, hello turn your radio on

Is there anybody out there?

Help me sing my song

La la la life is a strange thing

Just when you think you learned how to use it

It's gone

Woke up this morning and my head was in a daze

A brave new world has dawned upon the human race

Where words are meaning less and everything's surreal

Gonna have to reach my friends to find out how I feel

And if I taste the honey is it really sweet

And do I eat it with my hands or with my feet?

Does anybody really listen when I speak

Or will I have to say it all again next week

Hello, hello turn your radio on

Is there anybody out there?

Help me sing my song

Hello, hello turn your radio on

Is there anybody out there?

Tell me what went wrong

La la la life is a strange thing

Life is a strange thing

Hello, hello turn your radio on

Is there anybody out there?

Help me sing my song

La la la life is a strange thing

Just when you think you learned how to use it

It's gone
