

Shout Out Louds, Normandie

I tear my jacket off
How can such a nordic city make me sweat
I'm out and i find more coulors but
This blistering headache makes me wanna quit
Wanna quit

Now it's said and done
Say goodbye to people we don't know
Go back to sleep
Let's sail away to the beaches of normandie

The lights are blinding my eyes
Are you unhappy i am unhappy too
Your neck smells just like her's did and
Do you want someone, are you lonely too?
Are You?

Now it's said and done
Say goodbye to people we don't know
Go back to sleep
Let's sail away to the beaches of
Now it's said and done
So never mind that never mind at all
Go back to sleep
Let's sail away to the beaches of normandie
To normandie

Too many secrets, too many nights
I should have called, where have I been all night
I gave up sleep just to find your name
You stayed home, I should have done the same

Now it's said and done
Say goodbye to people we don't know
Go back to sleep
Let's sail away to the beaches of
Now it's said and done
So never mind that never mind at all
Go back to sleep
Let's sail away to the beaches of normandie
To normandie

And oh oh oh oh..
To normandie
