Shyness!, New Dawn

Scattered devotion It sounds like a melody Finding right motion There's nothing but her and me

Promises emotions
Desire that can't be freed
Sense of commotion
To go past the remedy

New dawn will come Even if you might find Won't lead you to the past

New dawn will come Even if you stay behind Roads you might find Won't take you back

Division of silence Forgotten bad memories Rights of the blind men Opponents to what we feel

Naive projections They led me astray again No clear direction I wish i knew what to say
