

Sia, Opportunity

Under the glow of the very bright lights
I turn my face towards the warm night sky
And I am not afraid of a thousand eyes
And there below
Five hundred smiles

I used to think
What wouldn't I give
For a moment like this?
This moment is gift

Now look at me
And this opportunity
Is standing right in front of me
But one thing I know
It's only part luck and so
I'm putting on my best show
Under the spotlight
I'm starting my life
Big dreams becoming real tonight
So look at me and this opportunity
You're witnessing my moment, you see?

Now I find myself here, and it's time
Yes this is real, and it's a gold-mine
I'm not afraid to fly
when it's above five hundred smiles

I used to think
What wouldn't I give
For a moment like this?
This moment is gift

Now look at me and this opportunity
Is standing right in front of me
But one thing I know
It's only part luck and so
I'm putting on my best show
Under the spotlight
I'm starting my life
Big dreams becoming real tonight
So, look at me and this opportunity
You're witnessing my moment, see?

My big opportunity
I won't waste it
I guarantee
