

Side A, Until Then

i long for the moment
when i see you again
i long to touch and stroke your long black hair how my heart longs to show you how much i care

i wait for the chance to feel your hair so fine through this hand of mine i long just to say
how i love you this way
its you i adore forevermore

chorus:
until then
all i have is just a memory of you that i can hold on to
until then
all i have is just this luxury of time to wait and think of you coz you'll be on my mind
until then

i go on believing
i see you standing there with the wind blowing through your hair i know that one day
i'll get you to stay
and together we'll soar
forevermore

chorus

i long for the time
i'll take all my chances until you are mine

until then...
until then...
until then...
