

Silent Force, Broken Wings

Escape, confines run into night
Tense whispers from nearby
A life lost in my eyes
Drak image of a smile

Fraying at the edges in my mind
Reflections in the mirror

One time so I can feel it again
The touch as my angel
is mending my wings
One time so I can feel it again
Mending my broken wings

Changes, the meadow green to brown Bare becomes the ground
As if this world was void of all my love unvoiced

Playing at the borders trapped in time reflections disappearing

One time so I can feel it again
The touch as my angel
is mending my wings
One time so I can feel it again
Mending my broken wings

I wonder if they're missing me can it be ignored ?
Take my hand please lift me up
This is my reward

Cannot take the blame Cannot cary shame

One time so I can feel it again
The touch as my angel
is mending my wings
One time so I can feel it again
Mending my broken wings
