

Silk City (Diplo, Mark Ronson), New Love (ft. Ellie Goulding)

Think i forget my breathe
did you forget my name?
I wrote your symphonies
They all just sound the same
Don't know what i believe in
Cause i just kept moving on
Said i should take a seat
I know where i came from

I got new love, love in me
I got new love, love in me
I got new love, love in me
I got new love, love in me

I got new love, I got new love in me
I got new love, I got new love in me
I got new love, I got new love in me
I got new love, I got new love in me
I got new love, I got new love in me

Didn't always like myslef
Didn't always get it right
Though i was someone else
And hat's the girl you liked
Don't know what i believe in
Cause i just kept moving on
Said i should take a seat
I know where i came from

I got new love, love in me
I got new love, love in me
I got new love, love in me
I got new love

If you could see me now
I got a feeling you'd be dancing next to me
I am on my own
But i could never be lonely
I got a new love in me now
Get electricity in every bone ilike
Now i am overthinking taht i am not who i should be
I got a new love in me now

I got new love, I got new love in me
I got new love, I got new love in me
I got new love, I got new love in me
I got new love, I got new love in me
I got new love, I got new love in me

Now Get electricity in every bone ilike
Now i am overthinking taht i am not who i should be
I got a new love in me now
If you could see me now
I got new love
