

Sixpence None the Richer, Deeper

I only wanted to tell you goodnight and whisper something sweet in your ear a simple melody to sing you to sleep to let you know I'll always be near
and deeper and deeper
our love is growing now
funny how
the deeper and deeper
I swim the depths of you the less I need of me and when you enter the dreams that you dream let this be the song that you hear and when you wake up I'll sing it again
the deeper and deeper
I swim the depths of you the less I need of me la la la da da da
the deeper and deeper
I swim the depths of you the less I need
and deeper and deeper
I swim the depths of you the less I need of me
