Slipknot, Prelude 3.0

I don't know why... ...I never told you I don't know why... ...I never tried

When we shed these bitter skins again

All the reasons come to life But now it's over.. Now it's over Now it's over Now it's over

I don't know why You never asked me And I don't know why You never cared

When we hide these little sins again

All the reasons Have to die... But now it's over Now it's over And now it's over And now it's over And now it's over! [x4]

No!
