

Slipknot, Purity (Live)

"This next song is about a girl in a box
This song is called Purity"

Maze, psychopathic daze I create this waste
Back away the tangents on the verge of trastic waste
Can't escape this place I deny your face
Sweat gets in my eyes I think I'm slowly dying

Someone hear me please; all I see is hate
I can hardly breathe and I can hardly take it

Hands on my face overbearing; I can't get out
Hands on my face overbearing; I can't

I am in a buried kennel
I have never felt so final
Someone find me please; Losing all reserve
I don't think I'm gone I know I'm fucking dying

Hands on my face overbearing; I can't get out
Hands on my face overbearing; I can't...

You all stare but you'll never see there's something inside me
You all stare but you'll never see there's something inside me
You all stare but you'll never see there's something inside me
You all stare but you'll never see there's something in you I despise

Never any danger to myself
Knowledge of my pain
Knowledge of my pain
Or was my tolerance a phase
Empathy out of my way
I can't die; I can't die
I can't die; I can't... die

You all stare but you'll never see there's something inside me
You all stare but you'll never see there's something inside me
You all stare but you'll never see there's something inside me
You all stare but you'll never see there's something in you I despise

Purity
Purity
Purity
Purity
Purity
Purity
Purity
Purity

Have you ever seen God?
Have you ever seen God?
Have you ever seen God?
Have you ever seen God?
