

Slipknot, Tattered And Torn

Kill Me

Tattered and torn

Something aches

Tattered and torn

Bad things slither

Tattered and torn

My floors are burning down

Tattered and torn

And I can't find a window

Tattered and torn

This is medieval

Tattered and torn

This is cerebral

Tattered and torn

Suffocated

Tattered and torn

Melodramatic

Tattered and torn

Driven to the verge of

Tattered and torn

I make you my enemy

Tattered and torn

The nerves you sever

Tattered and torn

Can serve you better

Tattered and torn

In the blink of an eye

Tattered and torn

In the space of a second

Tattered and torn

Open my wrists

Tattered and torn

Give me my lessons

Tearing myself apart

From the things that make me hurt!
