Sloan, Anyone Who's Anyone

Things can happen if we stay...

I missed my chance But I think I'm gonna get another Assume a stance That'll take you this long to recover

Everyone has played a part We're all together now Everyone who's played a part Should stand and take a bow Anyone who's anyone Should be here today

Let's lose this crowd Anyone who's anyone's invited We were all loud Maybe on our own but as united We're insular Wherein cooler Things can happen if we stay

Everyone has played a part We're all together now Everyone who's played a part Should stand and take a bow Anyone who's anyone Should be here today

Anyone who's anyone Should be here today
