

Sloan, Nothing Lasts Forever Anymore

I can see the writing on the wall
You hardly see me lately if at all well well
It's funny you say that
Cause I miss you like I never have before
But nothing lasts forever anymore

I want to know you, want to trust you
But you get a lot of love from the guys
I want to show you, oh but must you be easy on the ears and the eyes too

Don't you know the time is right
Don't you know the time is right
It's funny you say that
Cause i'm standing here and what that's standing for
Is nothing lasts forever anymore

Don't you know the time is right
Don't you know the time is right

I believe you mean it when you say
That you have time for me but not today well well
It's funny you say that
Well it may be true but one thing is for sure
Is nothing lasts forever anymore

Don't you know nothing lasts forever anymore
And nothing lasts forever anymore
Don't you know nothing lasts forever anymore
And nothing lasts forever anymore
