

Society 1, Lie

You talk to me you talk to my eyes
You talk to me while in your disguise
You say the things that I want to hear
You never say it too clear

It doesn't matter because when you leave
You'll think about the ways to deceive
Forget about the things you believe
Remember lies you conceived

Lie - you live a lie
A fucking lie, your life's a lie

Then there are all the promises they make Devotion and their word is so fake
Ever-changing and inconsistent
True self so distant

Are you really even in there?
Does it matter do you even care?
Ego grown you now believe
But you're the one that's deceived

Lie - you live a lie
A fucking lie, your life's a lie

Liar - Liar - You lie

Nothing matters but for you to cover the lie
Can't explain your reasons so you just have to deny
Think of all the people that now know that you're full of shit
All the pieces of your life will never fit

Lie to me
Make me see
All that truth
You believe

I was led
Lies were fed
Nothing left
Truth is dead

Lie - you live a lie
A fucking lie, your life's a lie
