

Sofia Carson, Back to Beautiful (ft. Alan Walker)

They say
You're not enough
You're not brave enough
You should cover up your body
Tell me
Watch my weight
Gotta paint my face
Or else no one's gonna want me

Why do we say this to ourselves?
And even worse to echa other?
Why do we say this to ourselves?

We gotta get back to beautiful
Gotta get back to beautiful
All these wars, starting wars
Over who can hurt who more
Gotta get back to beautiful

Judging who we love
Judging where we're from
When did this become so normal
Celebrating hate is now a commonplace
When did this become so normal

We gotta get back to beautiful
Gotta get back to beautiful
All these wars, starting wars
Over who can hurt who more
Gotta get back to beautiful
