

Sofia Carson, LOUD

Confrontation never has been my strength
Always feel like I should take all the blame
But something is changing
And I can't contain it no more, yeah
All the speeches that I made in my head
All the "no"s and all that I should have said
Like waves in this water
When rising, I'm stronger, come on

If I was a man
Then you would understand
You wouldn't say I'm causing all this drama

Are you getting uncomfortable now?
I'm a little too loud for you now
Don't try to calm me down
I was made to be loud
Goodbye, you're livin' a lie
'Cause that don't mean that we're alive
Don't try to calm me down
I was made to be loud, yeah

I don't care if you don't like what you see
I'm not pleasing you 'cause I'm pleasing me
Not wasting more time
I'ma speak up my mind when I want

If I was a man (Man)
Then you would understand ('Stand)
You wouldn't say I'm causing all this drama

Are you getting uncomfortable now?
I'm a little too loud for you now
Don't try to calm me down (Down)
I was made to be loud
Goodbye, you're livin' a lie
'Cause that don't mean that we're alive
Don't try to calm (Calm) me (Me) down (Down)
I was made to (To) be (Be) loud (Loud), yeah

Ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh

Are you getting uncomfortable now?
I'm a little too loud for you now
Don't try to calm me down
I was made to be loud
Goodbye, you're livin' a lie
'Cause that don't mean that we're alive
Don't try to calm (Calm) me (Me) down (Down)
I was made to (To) be (Be) loud (Loud), yeah

Ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh (Oh-woah)
Ooh-ooh (Oh)
Ooh-ooh (Ooh-ooh)
