Solstice, Not alone

Look at me And tell me what you want to see Am I not good enough? Am I worth anything? Just. Walk away Theres nothing you could ever say To mend this broken heart Just tell me Im good enough And Im not worthless Make me understand That I am not alone in here I am not alone, not alone You dont know The places that I will go Should I run away? Or am I able to stay? Just. Walk away Theres nothing you could ever say To mend this broken heart Just tell me Im good enough And Im not worthless Make me understand That I am not alone in here I have won I am not alone in here I am not alone, not alone Im not alone... Alone.... Im not alone... Alone...
