

Somersault, By Your Side

Rain is crawling down your skin- while drowning in the sea
Your helping cry was a lullabye - heard the echoes in the tree
Take a breath of dignity - the fallen will grow strong
Coming home where you belong - where you belong

Be with me
And you will see

Refrain:
If you are awakening tonight
I promise Ill be there for you - by your side

Lost and found in the underground - always on the run
Lonely moles diggin deeper holes - fleeing from the sun
