

Somersault, Like One

I am the song
I am the one who is swaying your soul
I don't belong to your own release

I am the sun
I am the one you are begging for light
I see you run to find a smile to ease

So lean your sorrow on me
You will borrow time without seeing me

Cause we are like one
Believe me
Not on your own
To save your love

I will assure
I am more pure
Like a moment of prayer
I maybe cured the lack of truth in you

So lean your sorrow on me
You will borrow time without seeing me

Cause we are like one
Believe me
Not on your own
To save your love
