

Somersault, White Flowers

White flowers living under snow
Humming words inside your inner dreams
Like signposts lined up the street
Leading to somewhere
Leading to somewhere

You only wanna be with me
I'm gonna try to say

I still keep every secret, you'll turn over
I feel, I am the reason to get closer

Stormy rivers kiss the stormy sea
Early sunrise at a better place
Your dawn is changing everything
Begging for meaning
Leading to somewhere

You only wanna be with me
I'm gonna try to say

I still keep every secret, you'll turn over
I feel, I am the reason to get closer
