

Sound of a revolution, Right By Your Side

Tell me your lies
Tell me that this isn't true
You wanna let go
Cause there's nothing more you can do
Cause you know
That I always been right by your side
Through the good and the bad with a smile
Now you wanna leave it all behind
Take me back to the place
Where I was loved and I was strong
(Back to the streets where I once came from)
I don't wanna know why
We always turned out to be wrong
All that we lost
Is forever left in our past
I never gave up
And you know that I wont be the last
Cause you know
That I always been right by your side
Through the good and the bad with a smile
Now you wanna keep it all inside
Take me back to the place
Where I was loved and I was strong
(Back to the streets where I once came from)
I don't wanna know why
We always turned out to be wrong
Tell me your lies
Tell me that this isn't true
You never wanna know why
Or if there's anything that I can do
Take me back to the place
Where I was loved and I was strong
(Back to the streets where I once came from)
I don't wanna know why
We always turned out to be wrong
