The New Revelations Of Being
the fire on the water
the air in the Earth
the water in the air
and the Earth in the sea
the fire on the water
the water in the air

they are not yet
and saying enough
they are not enough
at each other's throats
and the more furious
the more enraged
nead and drear they are here where the mother eats her son power its power
short of war
