

Squeeze, First Thing Wrong

(Difford/Tilbrook)

WARNING: These lyrics are unconfirmed and may be inaccurate. They represent the best attempt

There's evil in goodness and goodness in bad
Remember the first kiss, the first kiss you had
Choked on her tongue and bit on her lip
She gave her number but that was it

CHORUS:

Did the first thing wrong, did the first thing wrong
Oh eyes to the ceiling and pants on the floor,
I did the first thing wrong

Drove to the city to see the bright lights
The boys on the corner looked ready to fight
I stuck my neck out and I looked at his face
I left her standing, I was caught in a chase

CHORUS

But it's four in the morning and I knock on the door
She say's "how you doin' ?" and I say "I'm not sure"
I kick the bottles all downstairs
Guys are freaking out - so what? I don't care

CHORUS

Did the first thing wrong
Did the first thing wrong
Did the first thing wrong
