

Squeeze, I Must Go

(difford/tilbrook)

Warning: these lyrics are unconfirmed and may be inaccurate. they represent the best attempt at d

The flag flaps in the wind
It looks like rain again
And the tractor drives across a field
The jetty's so high and then

In moscow it's 3:15, in new york let's see a show
And here it's cold too cold for me
I must go (why must you go?)
I must go (if you must you must)
Why must you say goodbye when you could say hello?

The clouds burst into storm
The deer run into the trees
And the farmer drives across the field
He looks as though he's pleased

In moscow it's 3:15, in new york let's see a show
And here it's cold too cold for me
I must go (why must you go?)
I must go (if you must you must)
Why must you say goodbye when you could say hello?

The path waits in my mind
The circus passes me by
And the tractor has stopped in a field
My heart commits a crime

In moscow it's 3:15, in new york let's see a show
And here it's cold too cold for me
I must go (why must you go?)
I must go (if you must you must)
Why must you say goodbye when you could say hello?