Squeeze, I Won't Ever Go Drinking Again

(Difford/Tilbrook)

When daylight appears Through a crack in the curtain I'm laying in bed Staring up at the skirting I'm alone in my room But someone is turning the key in the door And I wake up to find It's still daylight outside There's a taste in my mouth Like the thoughts in my mind And I wake up to find That I left on the light the world can take a jump

I'm feeling like a lump when daylight appears Through a crack in my mind

I won't ever go drinking again When daylight appears It's the third time around And I swear I won't drink Ever again with that crowd What on earth did I say

Did I let the side down I've been guilty before

And I wake up to see The old wonderful me All naked and wrinkled From knots in the sheets And I get up to see My hair like a tree

The world can shut the door

Because I'm feeling so sore when daylight appears with my eyes full of sleep I won't ever go drinking again

Aaaaah how my head's like an anvil Aaaaah go the sparks as I angle Aaaaah goes the spray from the shower How could I smell like a flower When I feel like weed in the rain I won't ever go drinking again
