Squeeze, Loving You Tonight

(Difford/Tilbrook)

The full moon's glowing Blood red in the sky It hangs like fire On this winter's night I sit on feelings That hang in suspense Nothing in my life makes sense A question mark hangs with the stars up above As I'm driving home to the one that I love Sometimes I can't see the trees for the wood Loving you tonight feels good The moonlight changes From red into white It sits on tree tops Asleep for the night I see the signpost The road slowly bends Nothing in my life makes sense A flashing tail light speeds across the sky My head's cooking trouble as thoughts seem to fry The last temptation was misunderstood Loving you tonight feels good

I'm faced with the ultimate truth What if I see things don't improve I know they could Loving you tonight feels good

The sun is rising
There's mist all around
She sleeps beside me
And I feel so proud
Am I in heaven
With her by my side
This is how love feels tonight
