

Stina Nordenstam, The Return Of Alan Bean

Well I'm walking in these streets again
I'm back and it all looks the same

And I feel like a man who returned from the moon
Gotta be what it's like to return from the moon

I've been travelling for a year or so
I've been so far out baby you'll never know
I really loved you like in another world
But I'm back now, and this is even worse

And I feel like a man who returned from the moon
Gotta be what it's like to return from the moon

Now Alan Bean he fulfilled his greatest dream
A step on the moon and his future was ruined
Alan Bean and Pete and Rusty too
They had nothing left that they wanted to do
And what he felt
It was stronger than love
To Alan Bean life is not what it seems to be
A step on the moon and life on earth is a dream

Cause it's hard to return from a trip to the moon
It's not a game to return from a trip to the moon

You better take care of your dreams baby
But if you touch them you'll never be the same
Well I wanted to touch what I saw with my eyes
Don't try to reach the moon if you don't wanna realise

It's so hard to return from a trip to the moon
It's not a game to return from a trip to the moon
