

Student Rick, Monday Morning

Monday morning and time to get out of bed work sucks, this is the part that I dread 7:30 the bus came early again my luck, my girlfriend turned gay

and now im sitting here
trying to find myself
and I feel like im heading nowhere its only monday

[Chorus]
Sunny monday
and nothings going my way forgotten tradgedy
it only rains on me
but im still breathing
will this day ever end

times are changing
how will I ever survive
with no job
im luck to be alive
im on a journey
to dig myself out of this
what a drag
all the good times I miss

trying to find myself
and I feel im heading nowhere
its only monday

[Chorus x3]
