Student Rick, Monday Morning

Monday morning and time to get out of bed work sucks, this is the part that I dread 7:30 the bus came early again my luck, my girlfriend turned gay and now im sitting here trying to find myself and I feel like im heading nowhere its only monday

[Chorus]
Sunny monday and nothings going my way forgotten tradgedy
it only rains on me but im still breathing will this day ever end its only monday

times are changing how will I ever survive with no job im luck to be alive im on a journey to dig myself out of this what a drag all the good times I miss and now im sitting here trying to find myself and I feel im heading nowhere its only monday

[Chorus x3]
