

Superheist, Empire

(verse 1) A mask, a cut above, an image of a raging fire, burning in my mind,(you can't take from me)
and once you believe the tales they told,
once you believe in what they sold,
will it bring you to your knees?,
will it change you?

The memory will fade, that certainty it gave to me

(chorus) Factions, reactions, to me there's one solution, it's time to rearrange our ways, for you all create my destruction, we are one (verse 2) A task, a sky above, the remnants of a lost empire, an effigy, a sign, (you can't take from me)

and once you believe the tales they told,
once you believe in what they sold,
will it bring you to your knees?,
will it change you?

(chorus)

(bridge) We are one, the memory will fade,
the memory will fade, that certainty it gave to me

(chorus)
