

Szymon Wydra & Carpe Diem, for You Babe, Dla

If you wish to stay in love
If you still can love me now
Choose living

I am the one to blame for the tears you cry
Know your every scar so i wish i might Say sorry now
Say sorry now
In your every wound i poured salt one time
I was very cruel and this is why
I wanna ask
I wanna ask

If it still make ssense to you
Gimme one more Chance and Love me, too!

Take my hand again
Let me start anew
Lert me change your world
Make your dreams come true
I want nothng else
I just wanna live
Fro you, baby
