

Tacere, Deep Tears Of Tragedy

You are close to me but still I am left alone
This is my compulsive solicitude
Like a fading flower waiting for the rain to fall
I'm barely craving for salvation

Deep tears of tragedy
Show me the way
Deep tears of tragedy
The pain won't go away

I hear your heart, your soul
I sense the pain inside of you, but still my mind feels no sympathy
The skies are clear even though there's a storm inside my mind
I cannot force the rain to fall

Deep tears of tragedy
Show me the way
Deep tears of tragedy
The pain won't go away

I've been searching for an answer so long
(the answer lies in front of you)
Am I left alone with my horrors?
I am torn asunder and nothing will solace me
(is equilibrium the key?)
Like a pestilence this loneliness drives me mad

Deep tears of tragedy
Show me the way
Deep tears of tragedy
Show me a way the pain won't go come

Your agony hides you from a depressed entity
Yet hate seems like the only true reality

Deep tears of tragedy
Show me the way
Deep tears of tragedy
Show me a way the pain won't go come
