

Tad Morose, Anubis

It's your face that I see
In the mist, in my dreams
I am moved into tears
Why are you calling me?

Anubis

When I listen, I hear
What I see is your fear
Take my hand, come with me
Tell me why can't you see...?

Oh, no...
You say don't you worry
but I know what it means
There in my dreams

Anubis

Imperfect harmony
This timeless symphony
As power surges through me
I raise my head and scream

Don't tell me you're sorry and I know what it means
It's really no dream

Anubis
