Tadpole, Backdoor

Now you're coming through the backdoor How did you get there Do I mind? That's a question for the asking How did you get there Do I mind? Will you linger a little longer While I wonder

Watch me wear my ruse Awake your world And run with fools

Now I'm coming through the backdoor How did I get here Do I mind? In an eerie sort of way I sense you reaching Do I mind Will you linger a little longer While I wonder
