

Takida, It's The Booze Talking

I can never repay it

First time, started out like friends
But now I don't know
Your wish is to get me drunk
You're a bottle with soul

Is it because that I don't wanna change
Is it really so hard to quit this game, tell me

Come as you are, show me the way
Hold back my tears, come back and stay

I can never repay it

Alright are you going home, please come to me
I quit, I'm sober now and it's scaring me

I will always search your wisdom
It's coming over me
Your taste is just like heaven
And it will always set me free
