Tanita Tikaram, Sighing Innocents

Give me a stand
A standing ovation, baby
Give me a road
Which I can tail
You don't know nothing, baby
So don't pretend
Or you might pay
Cost
It's costing me nothing, baby
I might feel some shame
But I don't care

And if you won't mind
Just moving the fireside, baby
I'd rather be cold
Than lying over there

No, this ain't sighing innocents This ain't sighing innocents No this ain't sighing innocents I'm just trying to follow you

And if you walk I might just tag along It only be shop talk, some Well that's something to do

Or I might take a walk down By the river, baby But no I won't No I won't be waiting for you

No, this ain't sighing innocents This ain't sighing innocents No this ain't sighing innocents I'm just trying to follow you

Sorry but sense That (no one will miss you) That no one will miss you If you die

They might send a wreath They might send a reason They might send a reason But us, we know

Join in the sus
It's always the same man
He's taking a stroll
And then they tie him to his ghost
I know it's sad

But you never listen No, you never listen You just drive home
