

Tarkio, If I Had More Time

Here
is where I left you.
It was to test you.
Did you last that long?
So long.

Now
I understand you,
but can't comprehend you.
And do I need to work so hard
to not be on to you.
If I had more time

Slow
and I will kiss you.
I'll most likely miss you.
Its been a long, long time.
And now
won't you come over?
And like drunken rovers
we'll stumble round downtown,
and not be on to you.
If I had more time

Underneath your curtained window
I called out your name.
If I had more time

Here
is where I left you.
It was to test you.
And did you last that long?
So long.
And now I understand you,
but can't comprehend you.
And do I need to work so hard
to not be on to you?
If I had more time
More Time
If I had more time
If I had more time.
