

Taylor Dayne, In The Darkness

(Billy Steinberg, Tom Kelly)

I thought I was happy
Yeah, at least I went through the motions
I was always laughing
At what was left of my emotions
And my whole life was compromise
And my smile a thin disguise
Then I met you (then I met you) and I let you
Oh, I let you touch me (touch me)
In the darkness
You make me see how lucky it feels
In the darkness
I can't believe how good it feels
I thought I'd go crazy
Yeah, I couldn't sleep through the nighttime
I would toss and turn
While demons wing about in my mind
And, oh I sleep like a baby now
With you here, you're my baby now
Every night (every night) I want surprises
When you touch me (touch me)
Oh in the darkness
You make me see how lucky it feels
In the darkness
I can't believe how good it feels
And when I had nothin' to hold
You showed me the handle
Oh, and when I was
So cold, you were a million candles
In the darkness, in the darkness
MUSICAL INTERLUDE
And when I had no thing to hold
You showed me the handle
Oh, and when I was
So cold, you were a million candles
In the darkness, in the, in the
In the darkness
You make me see how lucky it feels
In the darkness
I can't believe how good it feels
In the darkness, in the, in the
In the darkness
You make me see how lucky it feels
In the darkness
I can't believe how good it feels
In the darkness, yes you do
In the darkness
REPEAT AND FADE
